In the reference 1st read above, common disciplinary proceedings have been initiated against Sri Y.N.V.Satyanarayana, former Assistant Commissioner, Commercial Taxes(Audit) Kadapa (now Retd.,) (CO-I) and Sri S.Bhaskar, Junior Assistant (CO-2) O/o.CTO-II, Proddatur, Kadapa District under Rule 24 of APCS (CCA) Rules, 1991 for the irregularities committed by them while discharging duties in misplacing the 'Ç' Form bearing No.CE/AP/133001. In the reference 2nd read above, the following charge has been framed against Sri Y.N.V. Satyanarayana, former Assistant Commissioner, Commercial Taxes(Audit) Kadapa (now Retd.,) (CO-I) with a direction to submit his written statement of defence.

The details of charges are as follows:

That the charged officer has shown gross negligence to his duties and had not taken adequate care and did not exhibit due diligence in discharging his official duties and was also very casual and careless in discharge of his duties in receipt of 'Ç' forms and handing over to the CTO's Officer, due to his above negligence one 'C' Form bearing No.CE/AP/133001 was lost in the O/o.CTO-II Circle, Proddatur.

2. And whereas the Charged Officer, has submitted the Written Statement of Defence in the reference 3rd read above stating that the 'C' Forms and waybills are generally delivered by the Deputy Commissioner's office, Commercial Taxes Department directly to the concerned clerk. But on 23-02-2007 he happened to be in the O/o. Deputy Commissioner, Commercial Taxes, Kadapa and keeping in view of urgency and as there is no stock of said forms in the O/o.CTO-II, Proddatur, he obliged to take the five 'C' Form booklets (each book containing 100 leaves) and deliver the same in O/o.CTO-II, Proddatur in good faith. After reaching the O/o.CTO-II, Proddatur, the charged officer has handed over the same to the concerned clerk and immediately a formal acknowledgement in token of receipt of the same has been issued. The official receipt will be issued after verifying the same with reference to the serial numbers printed on each leaflet in all the five (5) 'C' Form books that are provided to the O/o.CTO-II Proddatur. The concerned clerk on 24-02-2007 while verifying the 'C' Form books with reference to the serial numbers printed on each leaflet, noticed that one 'C' Form bearing No.CE/AP/133001 in the first book let is missing and immediately the said fact has been brought to the notice of higher authorities.

3. Whereas the explanation submitted by the Charged Officer is not convincing, hence a regular Enquiry has been ordered by the Government by appointing an Inquiry Officer in the reference 4th read above to Enquiry in the matter. In the meantime the Charged Officer has retired from service on 31-10-2013 on attaining the age of superannuation and he had been sanctioned provisional pension. The Enquiry Officer has submitted the Inquiry Report on 14-03-2014 vide reference 5th read above. In the Inquiry Report it is held that the Charged Officer could not explain the urgency by passing the normal practice in taking delivery of the 'C' Forms by the concerned clerk and also the reasons for leaving the office immediately after handing over the same to the concerned clerk, hence held that the charge framed against him as proved.

4. The Commissioner of Commercial Taxes vide letter dated 22-02-2013 has further informed that there is no loss of revenue due to misplacement of the 'C' form bearing No.CE/AP/133001.

5. And whereas the Government have examined the findings of the Inquiry Authority and observed that the Charged Officer has behaved negligently without any malafide intention.

6. Now, the Government after careful examination of the matter have decided to let off the Sri Y.N.V. Satyanarayana, former Assistant Commissioner, Commercial Taxes(Audit) Kadapa (now Retd.,) from the charge by taking a lenient view. Accordingly Government hereby ordered to drop further action against the Charged Officer by taking a lenient view, keeping in view that no revenue loss is caused to the Government.

7. The Commissioner of Commercial Taxes, A.P, Hyderabad shall take further action accordingly.
